K-4 DISCIPLINE PROCEDURE

We expect students to obey, be respectful, and exhibit the normal amount of self-control for a 4 year old. Certain steps will be taken to train the children toward these goals. We reward good behavior. Disobedience and disrespect will be dealt with promptly. Depending on the offense the teacher might warn, take down a name, require loss of a privilege, have a private talk or pray about the problem with the student. Sometimes a time-out might be necessary. If there is flagrant disobedience, disrespect, or fighting (and/or hurting another student), the student will be sent to the principal and the parent will be called. To prevent a recurring unacceptable behavior, great care will be taken to communicate with parents regularly and always if a serious episode arises.
